

CONNECTICUT ARCHITECTURE FOUNDATION

The Connecticut Architecture Foundation Inc. was established by the Connecticut Chapter of The American Institute of Architects in 1978. This organization's mission is to raise the public awareness of, and expectations for, Architecture and the built environment. We accomplish these goals through the funding of programs in education, scholarship, mentorship and research. Our administration of the Foundation's Scholarship Program is an important part of that work.

Eligibility

- In order to be considered for a Foundation Scholarship a candidate must complete two years in a NAAB-accredited architecture program leading to a B. Arch degree by June 30, 2022.
- A student who is currently enrolled in non-accredited undergraduate program but has been accepted to a NAAB-accredited Master program (M. Arch) is also eligible for consideration.
- All students in NAAB-accredited Master programs (M. Arch) are eligible.
- Only full-time students will be considered.
- The applicant must demonstrate some connection to the state of Connecticut (residence, school, work, etc.).

Charles DuBose Memorial Scholarship

Students who have completed two years in NAAB-accredited undergraduate architecture programs or have been accepted into an accredited graduate program are eligible to apply for this scholarship. Connecticut residents are encouraged to apply. Preference will be given to students at the University of Pennsylvania, Georgia Institute of Technology, and the Fontainebleau summer program.

The Charles DuBose Scholarship Fund was established in 1986 by DuBose Associates, Inc. of Hartford, Connecticut in memory of Charles DuBose, FAIA. Ruth DuBose, widow of Charles DuBose, has contributed substantially to the scholarship fund. Charles DuBose, Founder and Chairman of DuBose Architects Associates, Inc., was most noted for his design of Constitution Plaza in Hartford. It was acclaimed in the 1960's as one of the first urban developments to effectively separate pedestrian movement from vehicular traffic with a series of raised landscaped terraces.

Suzanne Sheng Memorial Scholarship

Students who have completed two years in NAAB-accredited undergraduate architecture programs or have been accepted into a NAAB-accredited graduate program are eligible to apply for this scholarship. Connecticut residents are encouraged to apply. Preference will be given to students at Cornell University.

In 1997, the Sheng family generously established a memorial scholarship fund in loving memory of Suzanne Sheng who was a Connecticut architect working with James Lawler, FAIA at the time of her death. The first scholarship award from the fund was in 2002.

The Connecticut Architecture Foundation Scholarship

Students who have completed two years in NAAB-accredited undergraduate architecture programs or have been accepted into a NAAB-accredited graduate program are eligible to apply for this scholarship. Connecticut residents are encouraged to apply.

The CAF offers scholarships funded from the proceeds of our own fundraising efforts and from our generous sponsors. This scholarship is granted to students with the goal of furthering the mission of the Connecticut Architecture Foundation: to raise public awareness and expectations of Architecture and the built environment.

Scholarship awards have previously ranged between $1,200 and $5,000.

Deadline: April 25, 2022

5. Two letters of reference from faculty members of the institution you attend on institution stationary are required to be emailed by the references directly to ctarchfoundation@gmail.com by the deadline date of April 25, 2022. The name of the applicant is to be included in the subject line as "Re: Applicant's Name, Connecticut Architecture Foundation Scholarship". Note that references from employers (unless also a faculty member reference) or others will not be accepted.

Additional Notes

1. Scholarships are awarded for the college/university academic year. In the event that the student graduates early or leaves school for some other reason, the scholarship will be pro-rated based upon that portion of the school year actually enrolled.
2. An award recipient may request a deferment until the following academic year. The deferment request must be prepared and submitted by the award recipient and sent via email to the Executive Director of AIA Connecticut. If approved by CAF, the application will be deferred until the next academic year. The applicant will be notified he or she does not need to reapply but will be required to submit the Deferred Scholarship Reinstatement Form and all award paperwork or decline the deferred award.
